Hello Everyone!! This is Katie Chesley, Elk Creek's new Chapter Chair & I'm inviting you all to another rockin Elk Creek Banquet at the Bel-Aire on January 26th.

Mark your calendar cause this will be a rendezvous to remember! I'm saddled up and running on high energy to get this Spike Camp sizzling! The whole Elk Creek crew returned to help me put this fundraising banquet together - you know we can't let the Sheriff and Deputy down so we have to keep this outfit runnin proud. Plus, that crazy Sheriff will be your M.C. for the evening and ya all know that things can go nuts at anytime! This year he'll have a crazy cowboy helpin him out and I'm sure ole Doug will be back doin some auctioneerin (what choice does he have, he's my dad!!). I have purchased some great firearms, silent auction items, and yep, our live auction will be off the hook. So what do you say....it's time to saddle up Partners!!

Ya know Creekers, the merchandise at Elk Creek is some of the finest we can lay our hands on - only 1st class here. Again this year, Dale Bohman has created us another one of a kind masterpiece. How fortunate is Elk Creek that this master artist supports our chapter. This year's work of art is entitled "Little Big Horn" a unique handcrafted design to tribute our Native American Indians - a Live Auction item you will definitely want to be bidding on. We also have found some of the most unique furniture items you ever laid yer peepers on!

But wait!

For all our Patriots out there... lay your eyes on this special - a one of a kind Glock 43 9mm American Flag enhanced. America the Beautiful indeed! Watch for our special banquet incentives when you fill out your application as you will have some really great odds at winning some guns just for simply attending.

Creekers you should know by now our banquet fills up quickly and this year is lining up to be doing so again. Get your paperwork back asap to save your seat.
